How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace, who brings good news of happiness, who publishes salvation, who says to Zion, "Your God reigns." The voice of your watchmen—they lift up their voice; together they sing for joy; for eye to eye they see the return of the Lord to Zion. Isaiah 52:7-8

TOP STORY

MEDIA MELTS DOWN OVER TRUMP'S "BLOODBATH" COMMENT - After President Donald Trump commented at a rally that if he didn't get elected there would be a "bloodbath," the media shared a narrative that Trump was calling for violence if he didn't get elected. Upon reviewing the clip, the listener can hear Trump is referring to the economic cost of another four years of Biden and not calling for violence should he not get elected.

The media stories have been community-noted on X, showing the context of the Trump quote and the long history of the media's use of the term bloodbath in exactly the same way Trump used it. Among those who only filter their news through DNC-serving outlets, however, they will be led to believe that half the country wants a violent civil war if their side doesn't win, which is sure to produce more left on right violence, an effect this writer theorizes is JUST what the media is hoping to create.

FEATURE

WOKE MAKES YOU SAD? - A new study conducted by researchers in Finland concludes that people who adopt the ideology of "woke" are at a higher risk of also suffering from depression and anxiety. The study was conducted doing a survey of 5,800 college students and faculty to first determine who was "woke" and then who was suffering from anxiety and/or depression.

The lead study author, Oskari Lahtinen, said they conducted the study because "the arrival of a critical social justice (often called 'woke') discourse sparked much debate in Finnish media in the last couple of years. This debate was largely data-free and it could thus be considered a worthwhile question to study how prevalent these attitudes are."

HEADLINES

SPY SATELLITE NETWORK BEING BUILT BY MUSK'S SPACEX - Elon Musk's SpaceX is apparently building a network of spy satellites for an American intelligence agency according to a report run by Reuters. In the report, Reuters cites unnamed sources within the U.S. intelligence community who are making the claim Musk's SpaceX is building the spy satellite network.

While Musk's company, SpaceX, builds surveillance equipment for the U.S. government, his social media company, X, continues to create a brand narrative that seems opposed to the very kind of powers his other company is enabling. In response to the rumors, the National Reconnaissance office told Reuters they are developing "the most capable, diverse, and resilient space-based intelligence, surveillance, and reconnaissance system the world has ever seen."

GERMANY, FRANCE, AND POLAND FORM ANTI-RUSSIA PACT - The heads of Germany, France, and Poland met in Berlin this week and vowed to stick with Ukraine in the war against Russia to the end, which includes expanding their efforts to buy war resources in the world market for Ukraine's use against their common enemy.

Germany's PM Olaf Scholz said, "Our three states are among the greatest political, military and financial supporters of Ukraine's struggle against the Russian imperialist aggressor. We are closely and unshakably by the side of Ukraine. ... Solidarity and common action are essential to defend liberty and peace in Europe. More than ever, our unity is what gives us strength."

JAPAN'S INTEREST RATES TURN POSITIVE FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 17 YEARS - The seemingly perpetual negative interest rates of Japan came to an end suddenly after the Bank of Japan raised their overnight borrowing lending rate from minus 0.1% to 0% to .1%. This was the first rate hike since 2017 when the negative interest rate policies began,

MSM & TRENDING STORIES

DID BOEING WHISTLEBLOWER TELEGRAPH HIS OWN DEATH? - The Boeing Whistleblower, John Barnett, 62, who was found dead with a single gunshot to his head in his pick-up truck outside a hotel in South Carolina, may not have killed himself if one person's claim is true. The alleged suicide happened soon after he had just testified in a case against Boeing. A woman only calling herself "Jennifer" made a claim to ABC News that, just before his death, he told her he wasn't scared "but if anything happens to me it's not suicide."

Jennifer added, "I know he did not commit suicide there's no way. He loved life too much, he loved his family too much, he loved his brothers too much to put them through what they're going through right now...I think somebody didn't like what he had to say and wanted to shut him up and didn't want it to come back on anyone so that's why they made it look like a suicide."

ARIZONANS COULD SOON VOTE ON MEASURE TO PROTECT GUN COMPANIES FROM "DEBANKING" - Republicans in Arizona are hoping to pass legislation that will give the voters a chance to decide if they'd like to protect firearms companies from being de-banked, from having their bank accounts cancelled by banks that disapprove of Americans' constitutional right to bear arms.

Banks have threatened the public with higher bond rates if the measure passes because banks will simply leave the state rather than allow gun companies to do legal, constitutionally-protected business providing a constitutionally-protected service for American citizens.

CALIFORNIA TRUCKERS REMAIN UNPROTECTED FROM STATE'S CONTRACTOR LAWS - Judge Roger T. Benitez of the US District Court for the Southern District of California declined an appeal of a newly-passed California law that makes it more difficult for companies to designate employees as being eligible for independent contractor status.

The lawsuit appealing the constitutionality of the law was brought by the California Trucking Association and Owner-Operator Independent Drivers Association. The ruling by the Judge means the trucking industry as a whole in California could potentially become much more expensive to utilize and develop in the loss of employment of thousands of California truckers.

“Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel. Whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you shall give them warning from me. If I say to the wicked, ‘You shall surely die,’ and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, in order to save his life, that wicked person shall die for his iniquity, but his blood I will require at your hand. But if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness, or from his wicked way, he shall die for his iniquity, but you will have delivered your soul. ’ Ezekiel 3:17-19
